1. INTRODUCTION:

Section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa Act No. 108 of 1996 (“the Constitution”) states that “everyone has a right of access to any information held by the state and any information held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.” In order to give effect to this constitutional right, the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) was enacted by Parliament and came into operation on 9 March 2001.

In terms of the Constitution and PAIA, all persons in South Africa, including non-nationals, can request information from public and private bodies. However, the right to access this information may be limited, in terms of section 36 of the Constitution, by a law of general application that is reasonable and justifiable in an open and democratic society based on dignity, freedom and equality.

Section 51 of PAIA prescribes that it is compulsory for all private bodies (including but not limited to: natural persons, partnerships, companies, close corporations, homeowners’ associations and body corporates) who carry on or have carried on any trade, business or profession in South Africa, to have a PAIA manual in place.

African Enterprise South Africa Association has put in place this Promotion of Access to Information Manual in compliance with PAIA, setting out the policies and procedures dealing with any requests for access to its information and records.

10.4. Before access to the Record is so given to the Requester, in terms of paragraph 10.3 above, the person responsible for such counselling or arrangements must be given access to the Record.

If, after all reasonable steps have been taken as required in paragraphs 13.1 to 13.4 above, a Third Party is not informed of a Request, any decision whether to grant the Request for access must be made with due regard to the fact that the Third Party did not have the opportunity to make representations in terms of paragraphs 13.5 or 13.6 above, why the Request should be refused.

13.9. If the Request is granted, the notice in terms paragraph 13.7.2 above must state:

- 14.2. If the search for a Record of a Private Body in respect of which a Request for access by a Requester, other than a Personal Requester, has been made, and the preparation of the Record for disclosure would, in the opinion of the Information Officer of the Association concerned, require more than the hours prescribed for this purpose for Requesters, the Information Officer must by notice require the Requester, other than a Personal Requester, to pay as a deposit, the prescribed portion being not more than one third of the Access Fee that would be payable if the request is granted.
